FREE NATIONS PRESS DATELINE: Ward Five

RE: New wall murals under construction, downtown.

DATE: 26 NOV 2026

As part of the Starving Artist formally known as Emil's ongoing probation, he is fully committed to completing his mandated community service hours following his conviction related to last fall's May Day GOF Zombie Insurrection.

Emil continues to assert that the event was primarily a peaceful demonstration aimed at advocating for equal housing rights for undocumented individuals within the local GOF Zombie Sample Community.

In a creative endeavor, he has collaborated with a diverse group of formerly undocumented GOF Zombie newcomers to produce a vibrant series of wall murals in the heart of the Ward 5 Insurrections, specifically in the alleys adjacent to McDonald's and the Mayor Petie Anti-Racist Turnpike.

This artistic initiative is generously funded by Madam Cleo Jr., the esteemed proprietor of Ward 5's oldest and most successful Voodoo Treatment Center, which specializes in addressing red curry pancake paste and related curry freebasing addictions.

Legal representatives for the beloved Voodoo Princess,

Madam Cleo Jr., along with the current sponsor of a prominent community initiative, reached out to this reporter concerning the content of this article.

They have urged that it be made clear that her sponsorship is entirely unrelated to the recent GOF Zombie Sample Riots, despite insinuations from certain national media outlets, such as CNNister, which have drawn connections based on Voodoo's complicated history in the zombie slavery trade.

It is crucial to emphasize that these allegations are unfounded and do not reflect the true nature of Madam Cleo Jr.'s contributions to the community.

Her argument posits that the situation at hand is merely a manifestation of a prejudiced racial insult, a "quilt by association" that unfairly targets the longstanding working-class members of her minority religious community in Ward 5.

She aims to rally local ward politicians to oppose any further anti-voodoo legislation, emphasizing the significant voting power of the Voodoo Community.

This perspective overlooks the compassionate actions of the late President, Mister "Little" Joey Buyhim, who, in a gesture of unity and healing, granted green cards to all undocumented GOF Zombie Samples.

This initiative was designed to help them integrate into the local labor market, allowing them to avoid the indignity of street begging for small change to afford basic meals, such as a McDonald's Happy Meal.

By empowering this community, they could leverage their voting strength to effect change and remove those who perpetuate anti-Zombie Sample sentiments from political office.

In summary, she maintains a clear separation from the incidents of the previous year, asserting that there are "good individuals on both sides" of that situation.

She firmly rejects the notion of resorting to physical violence as a means to settle disagreements. With a playful wink and a smile, she further emphasized her stance, suggesting a more diplomatic approach to conflict resolution.

"Discover the true purpose of JIS-JIS Voodoo, a sanctuary for those seeking resolution without the chaos of public confrontation.

Rather than airing your grievances on the streets, we invite you to visit our JIS-JIS Emporium, conveniently located next to the McDonald's by the turnpike.

Here, you will find an impressive selection of natural potions and remedies designed to help you navigate your challenges discreetly and effectively.

Embrace a path that spares you from the risks of legal troubles, damage to your social standing, or the threat of ostracism, and let us guide you toward a more harmonious solution..."

throughout this winter's dry season, and city officials are eagerly anticipating the influx of tourists that the vibrant alley murals are expected to attract, particularly during this tumultuous period marked by the ongoing civil war.

Empire's Inter-Galactic Department of Justice—against the remnants of the once-powerful ANTIFA Militia.

The ANTIFA group revolted due to a contentious disagreement with Ahriman’s WEF Goonies regarding the distribution of war spoils, following Ahriman's ascension to power in a palace coup against Little Joey Buyhim.

ANTIFA leaders have vocally expressed their grievances, arguing that while Little Joey was undoubtedly corrupt, he never demanded more than 10% of the spoils, in stark contrast to Ahriman's administration, which insists on a staggering 90%.

Future historians are likely to debate whether Ahriman was truly aware of the actual percentage of the war booty, suggesting instead that it was the rampant corruption and avarice among his closest

They will reference the historical accounts detailing his shock and dismay upon learning that specialized commando units from ANTIFA had infiltrated a high-security nursing facility in Long Island, successfully rescuing

This operation occurred shortly after Buyhim had undergone one of the initial successful Transhumanist Resets conducted by Skynet Labs, which had made significant advancements in bio-genetic transfers through their innovative second-generation eco-skeleton conversion kits.

This progress was made possible by their collaboration with Mister Billy D. Gated and his Humanity, a vision that sought to transport society back to an era when the average person possessed little yet, as recounted in the scarce first-hand accounts from the mid-13th Century, found contentment as humble serfs laboring without the distractions of modern technology that weigh heavily on the spirit.

The artist formerly known as Emil, who has faced significant hardships, anticipates that the murals will be finished by early spring.

This timing is intentional, as it aligns with the official memorial day dedicated to honoring the lives lost during the tragic destruction of Salt Lake City, a catastrophe brought about by the rogue actions of the nefarious Lloyd Austin Bio-Gender Brigade, who misappropriated nuclear

This poignant moment will not only serve as a tribute to those who suffered but also as a powerful reminder of the resilience of the human spirit in the face of adversity.

The CIS Humans and GOF Zombie Samples have both conveyed their eager anticipation for the upcoming day, expressing a keen interest in
